President's Page

To the Class of 1999,

I want to extend my sincere congratulations to all of you who have had successful educational careers at the University of New Haven. As the class poised on the threshold of the 21st century, you have been students during remarkable times. As you forge ahead into the next century, the excellent educational foundation you have earned through a great deal of hard work will serve you well Whether you decide to further your education or enter the workforce, we at UNH know that you will tackle your goals with enthusiasm and continue to set the bar of your professional and personal goals ever higher.

The next millennium will bring many changes to our society, a time of new discovery and challenges for all of us It is my fond hope that you make the best of all opportunities presented to you, as you have throughout your undergraduate careers

The faculty and staff at UNH join me in congratulating you on your diligence and perseverance, which have led to the achievement of an undergraduate degree. We know you will continue to make us proud and that your future accomplishments will continually reflect a positive light on our University.

Sincerely,

Lawrence J DeNardis
President

To The Class of 1999

It is my greatest pleasure to congratulate all of you on the receipt of your undergraduate degree from the University of New Haven. Together, we have spent the past few years of out lives in preparation for our future. Now, we must close the door on our college lives and open a new door into the future. Our time at UNH will never be forgotten, moreover, it will serve to further our success in the future. Once again, I would like to extend my deepest congratulations to all of you, and wish you the best of luck in all that you do.

Sincerely Yours,

Michael Di Bartolo
USGA President 98-99

Class of 2002

The Hynotist

The whole audience is amazed by LaRosa's powers.

Above: Alen and Craig look in puzzled, as they see all the new freshmen

Below: The representatives from ASID, are showing their club for all to see.

Right: Many people gather at the club fair to just hang out and catch up from the summer

Club Fair '98

Above: WNHU tries to intern the new freshmen class about the possibilities of working at the radio station.

Alcohol Awareness Week

The Grim Reaper shows its face on the UNH Campus to inform us of the scary stats of drinking and driving.

The Allingtown Fire Department shows the UNH Community the reality of drinking and driving, as they pull people out of a crashed car.

The UNH Yearbook would like to thank all those who participated in Alcohol Awareness Week. It was a huge success.

To Our Fellow Seniors,

As we rapidly approach graduation and the new millennium, we begin to look upon our memories and the fun we had here at UNH. As freshmen, we took part in the seventy-fifth anniversary of the university, the building of the two new residence halls, and as seniors we were able to see the unveiling of the new Charger Logo. We hope that the friendships and relationships you have built during your four years will continue throughout your lives. It was our pleasure to have served as your 1999 Senior Class Officers. We hope the last semester that you have studied here has been memorable and fun. We wish you much luck in all your future endeavors.

Undergraduate Student Government Association

Senators

Undergraduate Student Government Association

Undergraduate Student Government Association brings the needs of the student body to the attention of the faculty and staff. The USGA is made up of a several positions elected by the student body. They consist of the President, the Treasurer, and the Board of Governors. The President then appoints the positions of Vice-President and Executive Assistant. The large majority of the USGA are made up of the Senators. They are also elected by the student body to represent them as a whole. The other half of USGA are the club reps. They are members of specific clubs that are on the voting board. The USGA leads most to all of the clubs and organizations on the campus, whether social, cultural, or academic. In addition to the clubs and organizations, the USGA directs the communication board, which is made up of the four medias on campus. There are several standing committees that represent many aspects of UNH life.

Club Reps

The ISA often holds many Coffee Hours, for the benefit of the university. It gives the community a chance to meet and get to know each other a little better. The specific Coffee Hour shown below was cosponsored by the Office of Residential Life.

ISA

International Student Association

The International Student Association (ISA) has both UNH graduate students and undergraduate members. The ISA is organizing parties, International Dinner Party at the gymnasium in April, and several meetings per semester. The ISA is an organized member from fifty countries of six continents, and about 460 members including ELS (English Learning School) at Bethel Hall. The organization is open to everyone on campus, as well as faculty and staff.

Members of LASA are attending The International Coffee Hour showing their support for the international students. It gives them a chance to meet new people and form new friendships.

LASA

Latin American Student Association

LASA, The Latin Student American Student Association, was developed to provide the Latin American Student Students with awareness of their culture. It is also for the Latin Student who are studying here at UNH to keep them in touch with their culture and heritage. The biggest event that they sponsor is the Latino Awareness Week which is open for the whole community.

We would like to thank all the people that helped with the publication of this yearbook! Witout you, this would never be possible. Thanks for evrything.

Chariot Yearbook

The Chariot Yearbook is the organization that throughout the year works to take the entire year, capture it and then put it into one complete book for all to enjoy. The yearbooks goal is to best represent everyone's life here at UNH, from sports, clubs and organizations, to residential life. The book covers a variety of events, such as Homecoming, Singled Out and January Graduation. As the years go on, memories are made and it is the yearbooks staff to make sure that those memories are for ever saved.

All the memebers of CSA are very active on the UNH campus.

CSA

Carribian Student Association

The Caribbean Student Association was established to unite all people of West Indian Heritage. The founders of the club felt that their culture was not being recognized at the university. The purpose of the CSA is to enhance cultural awareness both among its members and the university as a whole; to create and maintain an administrative and social organization of the highest standards; to ensure a constant flow of ideas based in a democratic principle and to ensure the academic success of its members.

ASID

The American Society of Interior Design

UNH's Student Chapter of the American Society of Interior Design was formed to provide students with a link to professionals in the field of interior designs well as inform them about interior design practices and the future field. Student members focus their efforts on participating in activities involving professionals in Connecticut working in the design field, such as Career Nights, Continuing Education Seminars, and Trade Shows. On October 30th, UNH ASID Student Chapter members attended a job fair and trade show held in New York City at the Jacob Javitas Convention Center.

Club Picture

The Charger Bulletin is a student run newspaper at the University of New Haven. It provides students and faculty with information about what is happening here on campus such as movies, lectures, and even club meetings. Students can read their horoscope or catch a glimpse of the campus candid. Overall the newspaper is a great resource for students and faculty. Claudia Duff, and her staff did a great job in bringing a fresh new look to the paper, The entire staff should be commended for a great job, a job most people take for granted.

The reps for the class of 1999 sit the USGA office and talk about all the great plans that they have in mind.

Class of 1999

The millennia came to an end with the best was saved for the last. This was the first year that a class was organized together. The officers were elected and the senior class were not only represented, but also had a vote in the USGA. Traditions were started with the idea of a senior class gift, a school trip of the "99 Days" countdown, community service, and a social for the parents to meet the faculty. The hard work was finally completed with the graduation ceremony and a BIG sigh of relief.

These photographs were taken from approx. 1000 feet over the UNH campus, The aircraft, Acessna 172 privately owned and based at the Bridgeport Sikarsky Memorial Airport.

Class of 2001

With the help from our advisors, Paula Cappuccia and John Fryer, the class of 2001 has become a solid unit. With the addition of the three new Executive Board, there has been a plethora of new ideas that has helped to propel the class of 2001 to a new standing. The Executive Board has done a great job to help out the class and the university as a whole. There are only good things to come from the Class of 2001 over the next few years.

The freshman class find some ways to relieve built up stress at the homecoming festivities.

Class of 2002

We are the elected representatives for the class of 2002. Our jobs include: getting the freshman class involved in school, planning events, and having fun. Our main focus is to help the surrounding community while enjoying our educational process. With the help of our advisors, Sammantha Dennis and Mike Rossi, we will accomplish these goals to the best of our abilities. Some of the planned events include a semi-formal, Alumni Dance, the raising of the class banner, and the selling of the Universal Discount Cards.

BSU

Black Student Union

Working towards the goal of diversity and understanding people of different races, BSU has been an important part of the UNH campus for many years. The Black Student Union is an organization whose focus is unity. It unites African American Students. The main purpose of the BSU is for the members to learn about their culture. They organize events throughout the year, for students to cross the bridges of communication. They have organized fund-raisers, dances, Black History Month, socials, and educational events, all in the interest of creating Community. They make us aware of the immense importance of African Americans and their history.

UHN cross country and track is coming off the best year in the history of the program. Eight UNH athletes achieved All American status. In addition there were eleven All- New England performers and four New England Champions. As well as ten All- Conference athletes and two conference Champions. Senior Eric Larson all achieved first team Academic All- American.

The crowning achievement of the year was the record setting 4x400m relay which established a New England Intercollegiate record of 3:09.98. Coach Sagnelli is looking forward to the arrival of another strong freshman class and continued growth of the UNH cross country & track.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Chewie too!

Congratulations Leighanne!

Dear Leighanne,

This is a time for me to tell you how proud I am of all the accomplishments you have achieved. So much prouder then you could ever imagine.

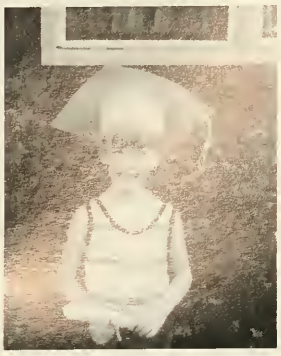
When you began your journey of life I had no idea of the way you would travel. As you matured I saw a beautiful person develop. You became a kind, considerate and compassionate individual. As your life began to take on meaning, you obtained a sense of purpose, set your goals and strives hard to obtain them. You have already touched the hearts of your family, friends, classmates and your community.

I am proud of all that you have chosen to do with your life. No matter where the road will go, I know you will always be the thoughtful caring and responsible person that you are.

I will continue to pray that life will give you all the good things it has to offer. I know that you will continue to give back everything you have to offer. May you continue to find fulfillment of all your hopes and dreams. But, remember, you are who you are, because of what you are inside.

So, in closing I just want you to know how happy I am with the women you have become and that it is with great honor I say, "That's my daughter!!!!!"

All my Love,
Mom



Congratulations Kevin!

Kevin-
Congratulations on a job well done!!! Best of luck today, tomorrow and forever...
Love Mom, Melissa and David

Congratulations Mike!

Congratulations Mike! We are very proud of our Engineer.
Love,
Mom, Dad and Tom

Congratulations Annette!

It seems like not long ago you were still our little girl. Though time flew by and you became a beautiful young woman. We are very proud of what you have achieved so far in life. We wish you the best of luck and don't stop trying to reach the goal you made when you were a little girl.
You have brought us a lot of joy throughout your life. We all love you very very much.
Love you always,
Mommy, Taty and Violet

Congratulations Steven!

Congratulations Diana!

To our Daughter Diana,

We have watched you overcome all the setbacks in you life to become the wonderful person that you are today. Congratulations on all your accomplishments. The pride that fills our hearts can not be put into words. May God always watch over you.

All of our Love,

Your Family Both Near and Far

Congratulations Josh!

Josh

You have built a strong foundation with love and friendship to start your life's journey. We are all so proud of all you do and love who you have become.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Chris, Rosy, Louie & the WHOLE Family!

Friend,

Well the count down is finally over! You are now in the REAL WORLD. Even though college is over, make sure you still keep in touch with your roommate, (We hear he has done wild things over the years.)

Neighbors.

Greg,

May you paddle your way through raging rivers and set goals as high as the mountains. Do this- and each obstacle becomes part of your adventurous journey. Remember your the Cat's Meow.

Love,

Diana

Spaz,

Thanks Spaz for our safe-haven off campus, basement of Elm Street, will live on for ever!!!! The goldfish will keep it floatin. Cancun memories for a lifetime. We are up for a trip to Foxwoods any time day or night!! By the way, did you really need the cooler for evidence? Josh & D

Muller,

These past three years have been so much fun. We have had the best times from Bethel to Fitzwillies to Cancun. You almost figured out all the pet peves (one left). Thank God for the truckster.... Did the scum smell ever come out? Just for old times sake "SMOKED YA to BANGKOK!" Josh & D

HTPG (you know the rest),

Thanks for the cable! Thanks for all the 18 hour visits to the chair, my teeth thank you! I am not going to let anyone touch my calculus, but you. Wine-in-a-box and cheese and crackers the best of times. Make sure to keep up with the Tae-Bo. Love Josh & D

Jeanne,

You have been a supportive friend to me. We are always able to pick where we left off and have an awesome time together. Bethel gave us plenty of drunk memories to keep us laughin for a long time. Don't forget to say "CAKE!" every now and then. Love D

Tanker,

I guess that I am the last one left. LUCKY ME!! And to think it all started form one simple question! "Will you be my friend?" To your simple answer "NO!" My, my how things have changed? Well, you know I love ya! Love Josh

To my Latino Lover Leighanne,

Thanks for sharing so many crazy times with us. Good thing they called us back for that job. Cambell Crawl OH what a night.

Kiby,

Sorry you have another year left, we will be back to raise hell on homecoming. LICK IT! Foxwoods baby! Love Josh & D

EDITOR'S PAGE

To Everyone:

The book is finally finished. It is 1:04 am and we are writing the last page. This is the end of the line. We have gone through so much and tried to put out the best possible book that we know how. We have learned first hand the saying "the second time must be easier" is totally untrue. This book was just as hard to do as the first one. We were able to grow and learn from the first book and create what you see now.

Now it is time for us, the editors, to say congratulations to the class of 1999. What you receive on May 22, is well earned and well deserved, which no one knows this better then us. As you travel out into the world remember to take with you all the memories and experiences that you have made here at UNH. The journey you follow is possible because of the strong foundation grown within you.

We would now like to thank the people that were able to made this book possible. If it were not for their constant support and heartfelt motivation, we would still be on page one.

Bob Sasena A man of many talents. You were very understanding when the pressure was on -- you gave us those extra few days that really pulled us through. Thank you for being so patient and helpful with this years book.

Laura Taglarini Your motivation and cheerful attitude always puts a smile on our faces. Your truly are an inspiration to us all.

Cindy Avery We are fortunate to have your assistance at our most desperate times.

The Steve's Once again you both went way beyond the call of duty. Your expert skills and quick shots are truly wonderful.

To Cheney I would like to think that we learned a lesson or two during this whole process. Remember how we swore never to procrastinate into all-nighters and to buy those throwaway cameras? Well, we never did! That's what makes us such a great team. I appreciate how you took care of the technical side and let me crop my pictures. Working with my best friend allowed me to be my crazy self and just have a good time with you. You know me better than anyone, and that's why your special to me in so many ways. I love you!

To "D" Well babe we did it, another book down. I can't believe it, it feels like it was just September and we were just starting. I am so proud of us. I know that this one was hard--- for a lot of reasons (lack of heat, lack of pictures, lack of camera, lack of batteries, lack of staff, lack of croppers, lack of hot chocolate, lack of, well you get the picture.) But I honestly knew that we could do it, no matter what the obstacle was. Always let your bright smile and glowing eyes lead you to true happiness in life . Thanks Coppola for coming into my life . You have made a lasting impression, one that i will never forget. You will always be my Cropper Queen. (No one crops like you!) Thanks "D" For everything I love you Always!
